Human trafficking is a serious public health problem. Health care providers are in a unique position to identify victims of trafficking and provide important physical and psychological care for victims while still in captivity and after.

Professionals attending this presentation will learn how:

1. to define human trafficking and illustrate the scope of the problem globally and locally
2. to address the lack of education and awareness for health care professionals about the problem
3. to demonstrate cross-sector collaboration to improve identification and response to potential victims of trafficking in the healthcare setting

10:30 – 11:30 Defense of an OPMC Physician Inquiry

Presented by:

Kevin D. Porter, Partner
Vigorito Barker Patterson Nichols & Porter, LLP

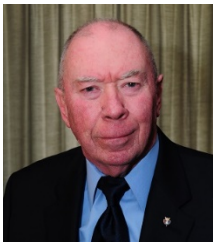

Physicians being investigated by the Office of Professional Medical Conduct (OPMC) can have serious consequences. Not understanding the OPMC investigation process can result in poor outcomes, including loss of medical license, probation, censure, or letter of reprimand.

Professionals attending this presentation will learn:

1. the necessary steps for preparing a physician for OPMC interview
2. important legal and regulatory concerns that need to be addressed in formulating a strategy to handle the key issues in the inquiry
3. management of an OPMC case if charges are brought-negotiation and approach to the Hearing process

11:30 – 11:45 BREAK

11:45 – 12:45 Catastrophe, Crisis, Traumatic Stress:
Managing the Psychological Impact on Staff in the Aftermath of Traumatic Events

Presented by:

Ray Shelton Ph.D., FAAETS
Director, Professional Development
National Center for Crisis Management

Dr. Shelton will discuss the many faces of traumatic stress and how it relates to the medical profession.

Professionals attending this presentation will learn:

1. the nature of traumatic stress
2. its impact on staff safety, performance and well-being
3. specific strategies to utilize in the aftermath of crisis and traumatic events to assist staff

12:45 – 1:00 Final Q&A and Wrap Up
