LLOYD C. BISHOP
Senior Vice President & Executive Director
Center on Community Health Equity Policy and Services,
Government Affairs, Communications, and Public Policy
Greater New York Hospital Association

Lloyd C. Bishop joined GNYHA in 2001. Mr. Bishop provides policy analysis and member support related to community benefit reporting, public health improvement, community health planning, health disparities, patients' rights, and diversity. Before joining GNYHA, he was a Legislative Assistant to Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan and Director of Intergovernmental and Tribal Affairs at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services. Mr. Bishop was also Deputy Administrator for Legislative Relations at the New York City Human Resources Administration, worked for the New York State Assembly, and the former New York State Department of Social Services. He earned a BA in Political Science from the State University of New York at Albany.

DOUGLAS J. BORG, MHA, ARM, CPHRM, DFASHRM
Vice President, Risk & Quality
Premier Insurance Management

Doug joined Premier Insurance Management Services in 2017, and currently serves as VP, Risk & Quality. With broad experience in the fields of insurance, claims, and risk management, Doug serves on the executive leadership team and is responsible for all operations and customized risk management services for AEIX members as well as strategic planning for annual improvement projects and collaboratives.

Prior to joining Premier, Doug was the Assistant VP, Risk Management for Duke University Health System, where he managed the day-to-day operations of the system's captive insurance company including both risk financing and loss control activities. He holds a BS in Biology from Eastern Mennonite University and earned his Master's in Health Administration from the Medical College of Virginia (VCU). With more than 37 years of healthcare and clinical risk management experience, he has presented nationally on various topics, serves as faculty for several industry courses, and has contributed to a number of publications, including a chapter in the fifth edition of ASHRM's Risk Management Handbook. He has a history of leadership in the field of healthcare risk management, serving on boards and committees at both the state and national level. He has been twice-elected president of the North Carolina Chapter of ASHRM, served as the President of the American Society for Healthcare Risk Management (ASHRM) in 2008, and is a current member of the NC Chapter of ASHRM Board of Directors.

GREGORY A. CASCINO, ESQ.
Partner
Martin Clearwater & Bell LLP

Gregory A. Cascino is a Partner and a member of the Firm's Appellate Practice Group. He works on appellate matters involving all of the Firm's practice areas including medical malpractice, general liability and healthcare law. He has briefed and argued appeals in all Departments of the New York State Appellate Division in cases involving various substantive areas of New York law, including medical malpractice, commercial litigation, architectural malpractice, and Labor Law §§200, 240, and 241(6).

ANDREW DAHL
Vice President, Emergency Planning
Greater New York Hospital Association

Andrew Dahl joined GNYHA's Legal, Regulatory, and Professional Affairs Department in 2022. He is responsible for emergency preparedness and response activities. Before joining GNYHA, Mr. Dahl worked in emergency management at NYU Langone Health and for the City of Philadelphia. He earned a BS in Public Health from Rutgers University and an MPA from New York University.

BARBARA D. GOLDBERG, ESQ.
Partner
Martin Clearwater & Bell LLP

Barbara D. Goldberg is a Partner and Head of the Firm's Appellate Practice Group. She is well known for her appellate expertise in high exposure, complex cases and has handled hundreds of motions and appeals in State and Federal Courts. She is noted for several important decisions in the areas of medical malpractice, negligence, workers compensation and labor law.

MARY MAHONEY
Vice President of Emergency Management
& Clinical Preparedness
Northwell Health

Mary joined Northwell Health in 1999 and is currently employed as the Vice President of Emergency Management and Clinical Preparedness. An award-winning nurse, Mary has extensive experience in disaster response and recovery after spending twenty years as a member of one of the federal medical response teams of the National Disaster Medical System, working in both clinical and leadership positions. Mary has vast experience in local, state, and federal emergency response and disaster planning, and has acted as the clinical operations lead for multiple local, state, and federal operations including hurricanes, 9/11, H1N1, national special security events, and COVID-19 testing and vaccination. A board-certified Family Nurse Practitioner, Mary holds multiple credentials in Emergency Management and Emergency Nursing including Certified Emergency Nurse (CEN), Certified Healthcare Emergency Professional (CHEP), Certified Emergency Disaster Professional (CEDP), Certification in Healthcare Safety-Nursing (CHSN), and National Healthcare Disaster Certification (NHDP-BC).

ROSEMARY MCDONNELL
Senior Accessibility Specialist
DC Homeland Security &
Emergency Management Agency

Rosemary McDonnell serves as the Senior Accessibility Specialist at DC Homeland Security & Emergency Management Agency's Resilience Bureau, integrating disability, access, and functional needs (DAFN) populations into the emergency planning efforts for the District. She previously served as the Senior Emergency Management Specialist at Northwell Health System's North Shore University Hospital. Before joining Northwell Health, she served as the Assistant Director of Safety & Emergency Planning at Hospital for Special Surgery. Prior to that, she served as the Assistant Director of Emergency Training and Operations at Pace University. She is also an Adjunct Associate Professor at St. John's University, as well as an Adjunct Faculty member at Idaho State University in their Homeland Security & Emergency Management Departments. She earned a Doctorate in Homeland Security from St. John's University, with her dissertation focusing on the insufficiency of emergency planning for limited sight, limited hearing, and limited English proficiency populations in NYC hospitals.

LISA RAMTHUN, RN, MSN, CPHRM, FASHRM, CPHQ
Enterprise Vice President
Clinical Risk & Claims Management
Thomas Jefferson University Health

Lisa Ramthun is a healthcare executive, registered nurse, and expert in helping high consequence industries drive reliability through system design, human behavior, and enterprise risk management strategies. Lisa has a strong background in all principles of risk management and has worked extensively with SG Collaborative Solutions LLC principles of Collaborative Just Culture and the Science of High Reliability.

Lisa is the Enterprise Vice President of Risk & Claims Management at Thomas Jefferson University Health and is responsible for the clinical risk and claims management programs. Prior to joining Jefferson health, Lisa spent four years consulting both independently and for AEIX RRG on a variety of healthcare risk management and patient safety topics. In addition, Lisa spent 12 years at St. Joseph Health. In her role as system vice president of risk management,

Lisa had enterprise oversight for the risk management, patient safety, captive and claims management, clinical data analytics, clinical research, infection prevention, and regulatory readiness program.

Lisa began her career as an emergency nurse, mobile intensive care nurse and manager. Lisa spent 10 years working in the pre-hospital care environment, where she designed and led critical care nurse transport programs as well as safety and risk management programs for the southeastern and southwestern regions of American Medical Response.

Lisa holds BS and MS degrees in nursing and is a certified professional in healthcare risk management. Lisa is recognized by the American society of Healthcare Risk management as a Fellow and is a frequent speaker and contributing author on risk management topics. Lisa is also nationally recognized by Insurance Business American as a leading risk manager as well as their top 100 risk managers 2017.

Lisa is faculty for ASHRM, a past Board member of the American Society for Healthcare Risk Management, and has served in number of volunteer and elected position including chapter president for the Southern California Association for Healthcare Risk Management.

CAROL SILVA
Veteran Emmy Award Winning Anchor
News 12 Long Island

Carol Silva is the veteran, 3-time Emmy Award-winning anchor from News 12 Long Island. For more than 3 decades she shared life from the News 12 anchor desk and did special field reporting including from Ground Zero. Carol also followed Popes and Presidents, covering national, state, and Congressional politics from Washington, Albany, New Orleans, and Texas. Just as important, she heard her viewers' stories in their workplaces, schoolyards, and kitchens.

Carol is also a host, and motivational and TedX speaker. Her TedX talk focuses on whether our attitude affects our outcomes in life. Among her more than 40 journalism awards, she has been inducted into the Emmy's prestigious Silver Circle of the New York Chapter of the National Academy of Television, Arts & Sciences, and into the Long Island Journalism Hall of Fame. After receiving her 2018 Honorary Doctorate from New York Institute of Technology Carol delivered their commencement speech, looking at what can happen after your first job rejection letter. (Carol still hangs her first rejection letter in her office, next to her first Emmy.)

In 2019 Carol got a standing ovation from the packed New York Marriott Marquis Ballroom, where she'd lead the International Women in Cable Telecommunications leadership panel on empowering women on the job. Carol has done hundreds of appearances motivating workers, women, girls, students, and anyone who'll listen about coming back from defeat, and the power of helping each other.

A Mexican American, Carol was named Hispanic of the Year by the Suffolk County Police Department and a Role Model for the Nassau County Hispanic Cultural Association.

Today Carol is focused on those life moments that may feel like devastating stumbling blocks, but become our stepping-stones to something greater. Her "The Silva Lining" podcast is available on Apple, Spotify or anywhere podcasts are carried - because Carol believes everyone has a story worth sharing.

LAUNETTE WOOLFORDE, EDD, DNP, RN, NEA-BC, NPD-BC, FAAN
Chief Nursing Officer
Northwell Manhattan: Lenox Hill Hospital
Manhattan Eye, Ear & Throat Hospital
Lenox Health Greenwich Village

Deputy Chief Nursing Officer
Northwell Health

Dr. Launette Woolforde is the Chief Nursing Officer (CNO) for Lenox Hill Hospital, Manhattan Eye Ear and Throat Hospital and Lenox Health Greenwich Village and Deputy Chief Nursing Officer for the Northwell Health system. Launette leads Patient Care Services operations and oversees a broad scope of strategic efforts and programming that impact quality, safety, and financial performance as well as patient and employee experience. She established Northwell's system-wide Magnet Council that enabled growth from 3 Magnet hospitals to 10 presently and she developed their system-wide nurse residency program which is accredited with distinction from the American Nurses Credentialling Center (ANCC).

Launette co-developed and grew the interprofessional system-wide orientation program for nurses and clinical support team members, which has remained Northwell's gold standard for 15 years. She was instrumental in the COVID-19 nurse staffing and redeployment solutions, which enabled care for countless patients and team members across the health system through the early waves of the pandemic. Launette co-led the systems successful effort to become the first health system in the US to receive designation from the National League for Nursing as a Center of Excellence in Nursing Education, co-authored the national Scope and Standards of Practice for Nursing Professional Development, and leads nurse-led healthcare programming abroad with the Northwell Center for Global Health.

An internationally recognized leader in nursing, Launette has earned numerous degrees. Upon earning a Doctor of Nursing Practice from Case Western Reserve University and a Doctor of Education from Columbia University, Teachers College, she became the first nurse in the health system to earn two doctoral degrees. Launette has been named national certified nurse of the year from the ANCC and she is a recipient of the International Founders Award from Sigma Theta Tau Honor Society for Nursing. She holds two board certifications, is an inductee of Columbia University Teachers College Alumnae Hall of Fame, a fellow of the New York Academy of Medicine, and a fellow of the esteemed American Academy of Nursing. She also serves as Asst. Professor at the Hofstra-Northwell School of Medicine, a role she's held for the past 10 years.